NEW-YORK, December 28.

LATEST FROM LONDON.

Yesterday afternoon arrived the ship Betsey, from Liverpool. By Mr. Barse, who came passenger, the editors of the New-York Gazette have been favoured with the (London) Sun, to the evening of the 29th of October, five days later than former accounts; the most important of their contents they take the earliest opportunity of laying before their readers.

HANAU, October 17.

A Swabian Gazette speaks of several secret articles in the preliminaries of peace between France and England, of which it pretends to give the following: "Spain, in lieu of Trinidad, shall receive the island of St. Lucia—the cession of the Spanish part of St. Domingo shall be recalled, and Louisiana be ceded instead to the French republic—the possession of Piedmont by the French—the king of Tuscany, the Cisalpine, Ligurian, Helvetic, and Batavian republics, together with the sovereignty to be founded for the late stadtholder, shall be acknowledged by England—the Batavian republic shall receive indemnifications in Belgium, and the late German countries on the Left Bank of the Rhine, for the cession of Ceylon. In case the definitive treaty should not be concluded, there shall be a three years armistice between France and England, on the footing of present possession."

LONDON, October 29.

His MAJESTY's SPEECH.

This day his majesty went in the usual state to the house of peers, and being seated on the throne with the accustomed solemnities, the house of commons attending at the bar, opened the session of parliament with the following most gracious speech:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have the satisfaction to acquaint you, that the important negotiations in which I was engaged at the close of the last session of parliament, are brought to a favourable conclusion. The differences with the northern powers have been adjusted by a convention with the emperor of Russia, to which the kings of Denmark and Sweden have expressed their readiness to accede.—The essential rights for which we contended, are thereby secured, and provision is made, that the exercise of them shall be attended with as little molestation as possible to the subjects of the contracting parties.

Preliminaries of peace have also been ratified between me and the French republic; and I trust that this important arrangement, whilst it manifests the justice and moderation of my views, will also be found conducive to the substantial interests of this country, and honourable to the British character.

Copies of these papers shall be forthwith laid before you, and I earnestly hope that the transactions to which they refer, will meet with the approbation of my parliament.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed such estimates to be prepared for the various demands of the public service, as appear to me to be best adapted to the situation in which we are now placed. It is painful to me to reflect, that provision cannot be made for defraying the expences which must unavoidably be continued for a time, in different parts of the world, and for maintaining an adequate peace establishment, without large additional supplies. You may, however, be assured, that all possible attention shall be paid to such œconomical arrangements as may not be inconsistent with the great object of effectually providing for the security of all my dominions.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I cannot sufficiently describe the gratification and comfort I derive from the [illegible] which the bounty of Divine Providence has afforded to my people, by the abundant produce of the late harvest. In contemplating the situation of the country at this important conjuncture, it is impossible for me to refrain from expressing the deep sense I entertain of the temper and fortitude which have been manifested by all descriptions of my faithful subjects, under the various and complicated difficulties with which they have to contend. The distinguished valour and eminent services of my forces by sea and land, which at no period have been surpassed: the unprecedented exertions of the militia and fencibles, and the zeal and perseverance of the volunteer corps of cavalry and infantry, are entitled to my warmest acknowledgements: and I am persuaded that you will join with me, in reflecting with peculiar satisfaction on the naval and military operations of the last campaign, and on the successful and glorious issue of the expedition to Egypt, which has been marked throughout by atchievements, tending in their consequence, and by their example, to produce lasting advantage and honour to this country. It is my first and most fervent prayer, that my people may experience the reward they have so long merited, in a full enjoyment of the blessings of peace, in a progressive increase of the national commerce, credit, and resources, and above all, in the undisturbed possession of their religion, laws and liberties, under the safeguard and protection of that constitution, which it has been the great object of all our efforts to preserve, and which it is our most sacred duty to transmit unimpaired to our descendants.

Lord Belton moves the address to-day in the house of peers, and lord Lilford, seconds it.

In the house of commons, lord Lovaine moves the address, and col. Woodhouse seconds it.

The grand debate upon the preliminaries of peace is expected to take place on Tuesday next. Upon that occasion, lord Romney is expected to move the address, and lord Limerick to second. In the house of commons, lord Francis Osborne is expected to move, and Mr. Lee to second.

We can positively state that the marquis Cornwallis with his suite will depart for France on Sunday next. The noble plenipotentiary, as has been already stated to the public, goes first to Paris, but we understand he will not remain there above two or three days, when he will repair to Amiens. It is not expected that the definitive treaty will take much time in being brought to a satisfactory conclusion.

BOSTON, December 21.

LATE FROM FRANCE.

A gentleman who came passenger in the Nancy, captain Beebe, arrived at Sagg-Harbour, L. I. from Bourdeaux, informs, that he left that place on the 5th November, at which time an armament was fitting out from Brest and other places, for St. Domingo, and were to sail by the 3d or 4th November, on board of which were to be embarked 40,000 men. That it was reported, a frigate had sailed for America with orders to make contracts for the supply of the troops after their arrival in the West-Indies; and to inform the government of the United States, that the island would be declared in a state of blockade. That the definitive treaty of peace was not then signed, but expected by many that it would be on the 8th November, the day fixed on for the celebration of peace throughout all France; for which occasion great and splendid preparations were making. He also informs, that the news of the sale of the ship Trumbull, and other American vessels in France, was true; but that in consequence of their new owners not being able to procure French papers for them, the demand, at those prices, had ceased; though further applications would be made to government to effect that purpose.

NEW-YORK, December 29.

A letter from St. Kitts, received in this city, dated the 2d inst. says, that a new French governor has arrived at Martinique in the French frigate La Ponce; and that general La Crosse was at Dominique waiting for troops, in the expectation of taking possession of Guadaloupe.

Extract of a letter from an officer on board the United States frigate Philadelphia, to his friend in Norfolk.

"I regret extremely, that I have to announce to you the loss of lieut. Clagget and Mr. Willis, midshipman, and eight of our best men. The commodore having occasion to send dispatches to our consul at Gibraltar, Clagget was dispatched on that service, with a midshipman and nine men. On their return the boat upset, in consequence of a sudden flaw of wind, and only one of her crew escaped; the survivor reports, that lieut. Clagget, not being able to swim, remained by the boat until she went down. Poor Willis swam as long as his strength enabled him, and caught hold of one of the men, who, finding they must both perish, disengaged himself, and saw Mr. Willis go down in a few seconds; the man was taken up by one of the guard boats, in great extremity.

"The loss of these valuable young men is a circumstance greatly to be lamented; they stood high in reputation, and promised to be a credit to their friends, and an honour to their country."

By a report made to congress it appears that £439 7s. sterling has been expended in the purchase of books for the library of that body, and that the number of volumes received therefor amounts to 740, a catalogue of which has been published for the use of the members.

January 2.

Large mines of PEAT, a substitute for wood, have been discovered the past season in several sea-port towns bordering on the sound, in the state of Connecticut. It is said this substance is in general use in a number of places, and can be procured at half the price of wood. The mines of it are inexhaustible—and a number of the inhabitants of several towns have become interested in the business, and propose to procure peat for their only fuel the next winter, which will tend greatly to reduce the price of wood.

COMMUNICATION.

We understand the five Indian chiefs, who left us several days ago, on their way to the federal government, had a conference with the society of Friends in this city in which the Little Turtle, and his brother chief, Five Medals, expressed themselves at considerable length. We are informed their speeches were taken down in short hand, by Mr. Gerard T. Hopkins, of this city.—We hope, if they are not of a private nature, the public will shortly be gratified with a perusal of them—as from the character of these chiefs, as great orators, particularly the Little Turtle, they must be interesting.

January 4.

General Moyse, was tried by a military commission, at Cape-Francois, on the 11th November, 1801, for conspiracy against the public safety, and disobedience of the orders of Toussaint Louverture, governor of St. Domingo. He was found guilty, and sentenced to death. The sentence was approved by Toussaint on the 12th November.

COMMERCIALLY IMPORTANT.

We understand that the consul-general of the French republic, for the United States, has received orders to grant French registers to American vessels, purchased and owned by citizens of the French republic. [N. Y. pap.]

From different letters, received from Cape-Francois, it appears that the news of peace was received there at the beginning of the last month, and had caused the most lively sensations of joy. One of the letters also informs us that general Moyse, one of the authors of the late massacre of the whites, was shot at Port-de-Paix, the latter end of November. [N. Y. Monitor.]

In CHANCERY, January 5, 1801.

IT is also adjudged and ordered, that the said HENRY RIDGELY, of Henry, appear before the chancellor, in the chancery-office, on the twenty-fifth day of May next, for the purpose of answering such interrogatories as may be proposed to him by his creditors, and that by having a copy of this clause inserted in the Maryland Gazette three times before the 25th of this month, he give notice to his creditors to attend at the same time and place.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Four years have ſcarcely elapſed ſince the introduction of HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES into general uſe, yet in this ſhort period upwards of one hundred and twenty thouſand perſons of both ſexes, of every age, and in every ſituation have received benefit from this extraordinary remedy, in various complaints arifing from worms, and from obſtructions in the ſtomach and bowels.

This medicine, which is as innocent and mild, as it is certain and efficacious in its operation, cannot injure the youngeſt infant, or the moſt delicate pregnant lady, ſhould no worms exiſt in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanſe the ſtomach and bowels, removing whatever is foul or offenſive within, particularly that ſlimy humour from whence worms and many fatal diſorders proceed.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerneſs; having a pleaſing appearance, and an agreeable taſte.

A doſe of this medicine given occaſionally will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children, a dreadful diſorder which annually deſtroys thouſands of the infant part of our cities. Particular and plain inſtructions are given for every part of the neceſſary treatment in ſuch caſes.

In caſes of extremity where the long prevalence and obſtinacy of diſeaſe has brought on a general impoveriſhment of the ſyſtem, exceſſive debility of the whole frame, and a waſting of the fleſh which no nouriſhment or cordial could repair, a perſeverance in the uſe of this medicine has performed the moſt aſtoniſhing cures.

INFALLIBLE AGUE and FEVER DROPS.

Thouſands can teſtify of their being cured by theſe drops, after the bark and every other medicine has proved ineffectual; and not one in an hundred has had occaſion to take more than one, and numbers not half a bottle.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Henry C. Soper.

" Kent county, Delaware.

" I have given the ague drops to a number of patients this fall, and with conſtant ſucceſs; in ſome obſtinate caſes they acted like a charm; the diſeaſe yielding in a day or two to this remedy, after reſiſting the bark for months, and when they had been thrown in, in the largeſt doſes."
